What makes summer super? Strathmore! Travel around the world on a summertime serenade without leaving the comfort of your beach chair or picnic blanket - that's the magic of our free outdoor concerts. Eight international acts, eight Wednesday evenings, eight opportunities to enjoy music in the sweet summer breeze: free of charge, open to the public, with no tickets necessary.

Parking:
Parking for the Free Summer Outdoor Concerts and Workshops is in the Metro garage for $4.75 with Metro SmarTrip card or major credit card; enter off Tuckerman Lane. Parking for patrons with disabilities (with tag) and Strathmore Stars Parking (with Strathmore Summer Parking Pass) is in the Mansion lot on a space available basis; enter at 10701 Rockville Pike until 7PM.

OUTDOOR SUMMER CONCERT SERIES 2011 You Can't Miss It!

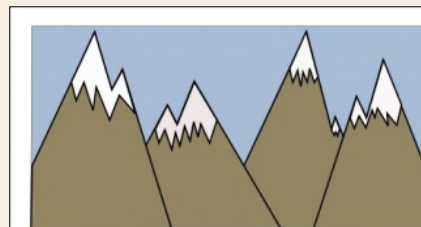

Andes Manta! This Wednesday! July 20, 2011 at 7:00pm

There's nothing cooler on a hot summer night than the music of Andes Manta. The vibrant, powerful, prehistoric music of South America is presented in all its romance and mystery by the Lopez brothers - Fernando, Luis, Bolivar, and Jorge - who are natives of the Ecuadorian Andes with more than 35 amazing instruments and centuries of tradition at their fingertips.

LISTEN AND LEARN! Enjoy a free pan-pipe workshop in the Mansion from 5:00-5:45pm. Ages 5 through adult are welcome to come learn the art of playing the pan pipe from Andes Manta musicians. Reservations required, please call (301) 581-5144.
